5. Chun na Ruin seo leanas ón gComhairleoir a mheas:
To consider the following notice of Motion in the name of:

Cllr. Ted Lucey

It is extremely disappointing to learn of the shortfall of approximately €1.5/2M for the refurbishment of the Briery Gap. It has now been closed for the past 2 years due to the fire. It is absolutely essential that the funding shortfall is found. Its closure is a huge loss to local businesses, schools, drama and musical groups from the surrounding areas. As I have highlighted in the past it was the heartbeat of Macroom & the greater Lee Valley area.

Huge praise must be given to the board members who continue to work tirelessly to keep a lot of the events going. It's becoming next to impossible and financially challenging to keep these shows going in the Riverside Park Hotel which is approximately 1.5kms from the town centre.

I therefore request that Cork County Council explores all avenues to address the funding shortfall, to ensure that this fine facility, which encompasses the theatre, cinema and library, is restored for the people of Macroom and the greater Lee Valley area.
