Cllr. Audrey Buckley

- 1. “Can we please look at reverting the speed limit of 30mph back to 50mph, coming into Crosshaven Village. I am receiving a lot of complaints, especially that once you get into the village the other roads to The Point Churchbay etc are 50mph.”
- 2. “Can I get an update on the raised table crossing that was agreed previously, between Barnes Lane and parking lot by RCYC.”

Cllr. Seamus McGrath

- 1. “That this Municipal District would write to the Commissioner of An Garda Síochána seeking a significant improvement in the number of Gardai stationed in the Carrigaline Municipal District area. Additionally, to request better opening hours in the Garda Stations to make them far more accessible for the general public."

- 2. "To request that Station Road Carrigaline be assessed with a view to providing additional public lighting."*
- 3. "To request that the Engineer consider Ardmore Estate for footpath upgrade works in 2023."*

Cllr. Michael Paul Murtagh

- 1. "Can I have an update on a previous motion I had about, installing a safety barrier or bollards on the 90-degree bend on the R611 on the lower Kilmoney Rd across from lower Clevedon."*
- 2. "Can the MD confirm that the next section of road on the R612 at drakes pool, is on the programme of works for resurfacing in 2023."*
- 3. "That the MD provide an update on the progress of the "Crosshaven Project ", considering the safety issues have been highlighted in the wake of recent part 8 planning submissions locally."*

Cllr. Ben Dalton O'Sullivan

- 1. "I would like to formally request that Forest Road, Carrigaline be included in the RI budget this year. Also - Significant drainage works are required on the Meadstown length of the road. I'm asking that the road be also included in the Drainage works program."*
- 2. "To request that the road from Lios X to Bowens X (Upper Ballygarvan) be included in the RI program. Sections of this road are currently in very poor condition. Drainage works are also required in parts."*
