[g] NOTICES OF MOTION
FOGRAÍ RÚN

8. CLLR JOHN PAUL O'SHEA

"That Cork County Council write to Uisce Eireann, Minister for Housing, Local Government & Heritage Darragh O'Brien & Minister for Public Expenditure & Reform Pascal Donohoe outlining our disappointment on the progress that has been made to date on implementing the seven approved WWTP upgrade projects for Cork County under the Small Towns and Villages Growth Programme under their Capital Programme 2020 - 2024. Lisgoold & Ballineen/Enniskeane WWTP upgrades are only now at concept design stage while the remaining five projects in Ballinspittle, Belgooley, Castlemagner, Kilmuney/Ovens & Glanworth will only progress to concept design stage during 2023. This likely means all seven projects will now not be completed and operational under the current capital programme which comes to an end in 2024. As a Council, we should insist on the prioritisation of these projects during 2023 to ensure current houses and new houses proposed for these seven villages have access to improved wastewater services".

9. CLLR BERNARD MOYNIHAN

"That this council is updated on the current arrangements in place to deal with dangerous dogs in Cork. The numbers employed in this area and the powers available to council to deal with owners of dangerous breeds of dogs."

[12/01/2023]

10. CLLR KAREN COAKLEY

“I call upon this Council to write to Minister Darragh O' Brien requesting the introduction of the new Marine Protected Area Bill (MPA) in the hope that once this bill is introduced that it would be possible to re-look at Baltimore and other harbours and remove sections of them from the original SAC's so that work could be undertaken such as breakwaters which cannot be undertaken at the moment due to the application of the SAC rules.”

[12/01/2023]

11. CLLR GEARÓID MURPHY

“To write to the Irish Times, the Irish Independent and the Irish Examiner asking that they moderate their social media platforms so as to reduce racism, xenophobia and misinformation in the comments sections under their posts, and in particular on posts relating the current far-right protests in Dublin and elsewhere.”
