

Adopted Amendment to the

Carrigaline Electoral Area
Local Area Plan 2005

Amendment 2:
Proposed Waste Water Treatment Plant at Ringaskiddy

Adopted by the Members of Cork County Council at their meeting on 22nd January 2007

Adopted Amendment to the Carrigaline Electoral Area Local Area Plan 2005

Amendment 2:

Proposed Waste Water Treatment Plant at Ringaskiddy

The adopted amendment relates to a site of approximately 7.35 hectares to the west of Ringaskiddy (c. 2.5 km) and northeast of the satellite town of Carrigaline (c. 1.5km). The site was part of a larger site zoned for a large stand-alone industry, I-03, in the zoning map for the Strategic Industrial Area of Ringaskiddy in the Carrigaline Electoral Area Local Area Plan 2005 and its zoning for a waste water treatment plant required an amendment to the Local Area Plan. This amendment was adopted by the Members of Cork County Council in their meeting on 22nd January 2007.

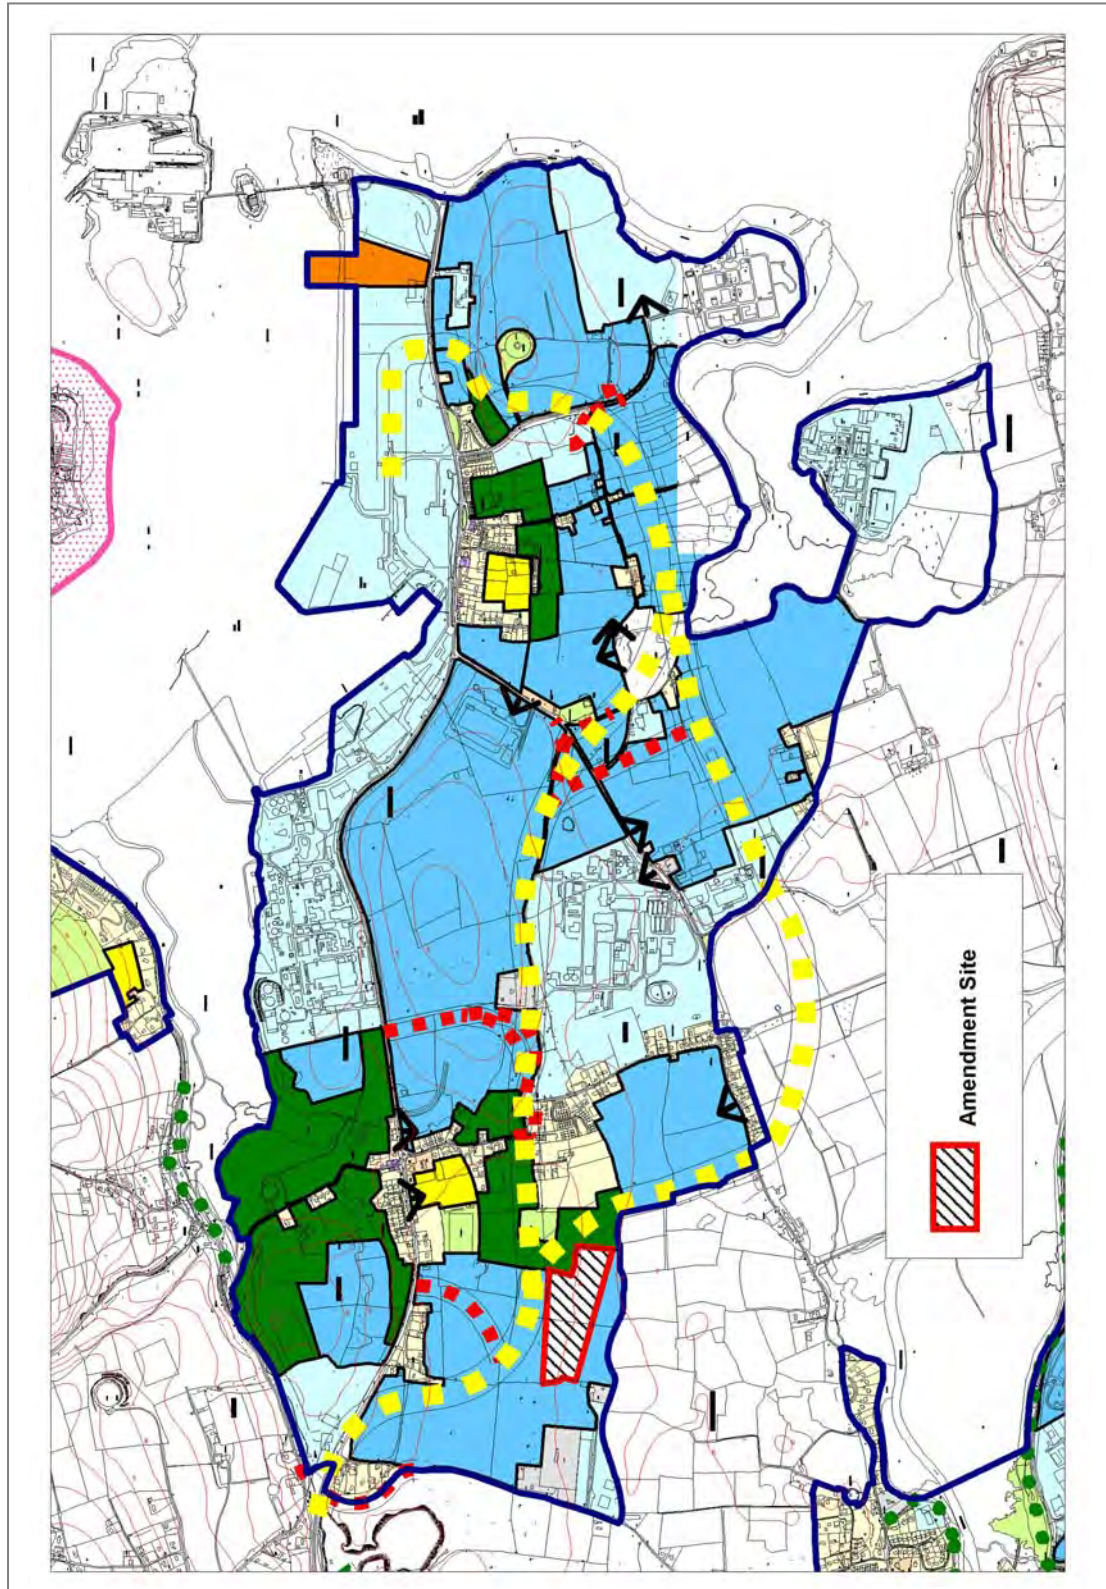

The adopted amendment incorporates the following changes to the Carrigaline Electoral Area Local Area Plan 2005:

- The amendment of the I-03 site in the Zoning map for Ringaskiddy, to provide for the site of a new utilities and infrastructure zoning.
- The inclusion of a new Utilities and Infrastructure zoning objective, U-02 for Ringaskiddy.

This document sets out the adopted amendment in full and should be read in conjunction with the Carrigaline Electoral Area Local Area Plan 2005 and the Environmental Report prepared by the Council in relation to this amendment.
