

MEADOWLANDS

WELCOME

Looking for a right place to Call Home? Whether you are in Cork or Killarney - or Macroom itself, you'll find Meadowlands is the ideal place to call home. Here you will find a high quality design and build. Just a few minutes' walk away from the centre of town, this stylish development has something for everyone whatever your needs.

MEADOWLANDS

Located just between 5 - 10 minutes' walk from the Town Centre, Meadowlands is a spectacular development of two, three and four bedroom houses. Making extensive use of traditional materials including an exceptional slate effect roof tiling, these homes are a striking blend of modern design, quality build and finish, buyers are sure to find their perfect home. The internal layouts make exceptional clever use of space, while extensive landscaping compliments a stylish layout to give true feeling of distinction to the entire development.

GOOD FACILITIES ABOUND

There are a number of Montessori pre schools in Macroom. There are also three main primary schools and three secondary schools, Bishop MacEgan College, De La Salle College and St Marys Secondary School. The Macroom Castle Demesne, is an exceptional amenity, providing riverside parkland and golf course adjoining the town centre. There are numerous sporting, social and cultural activities in Macroom and a wide range of clubs – everything from GAA, Golf, Soccer to fishing.

A TRUE HERITAGE

The town is characterised by use of local stone and decorative timber, as well as brightly painted render typical of County Cork. The town was originally developed around a 12th century castle, whose tower and gate remain its cultural focus today. The old market square, where markets are still held today contains some exceptionally fine commercial buildings. It is dominated by the Town Hall and the 15th century stone built entrance to the Castle Demesne. The route to the west, over the arched stone bridge affords attractive views in both directions upstream and downstream to the Town Park.

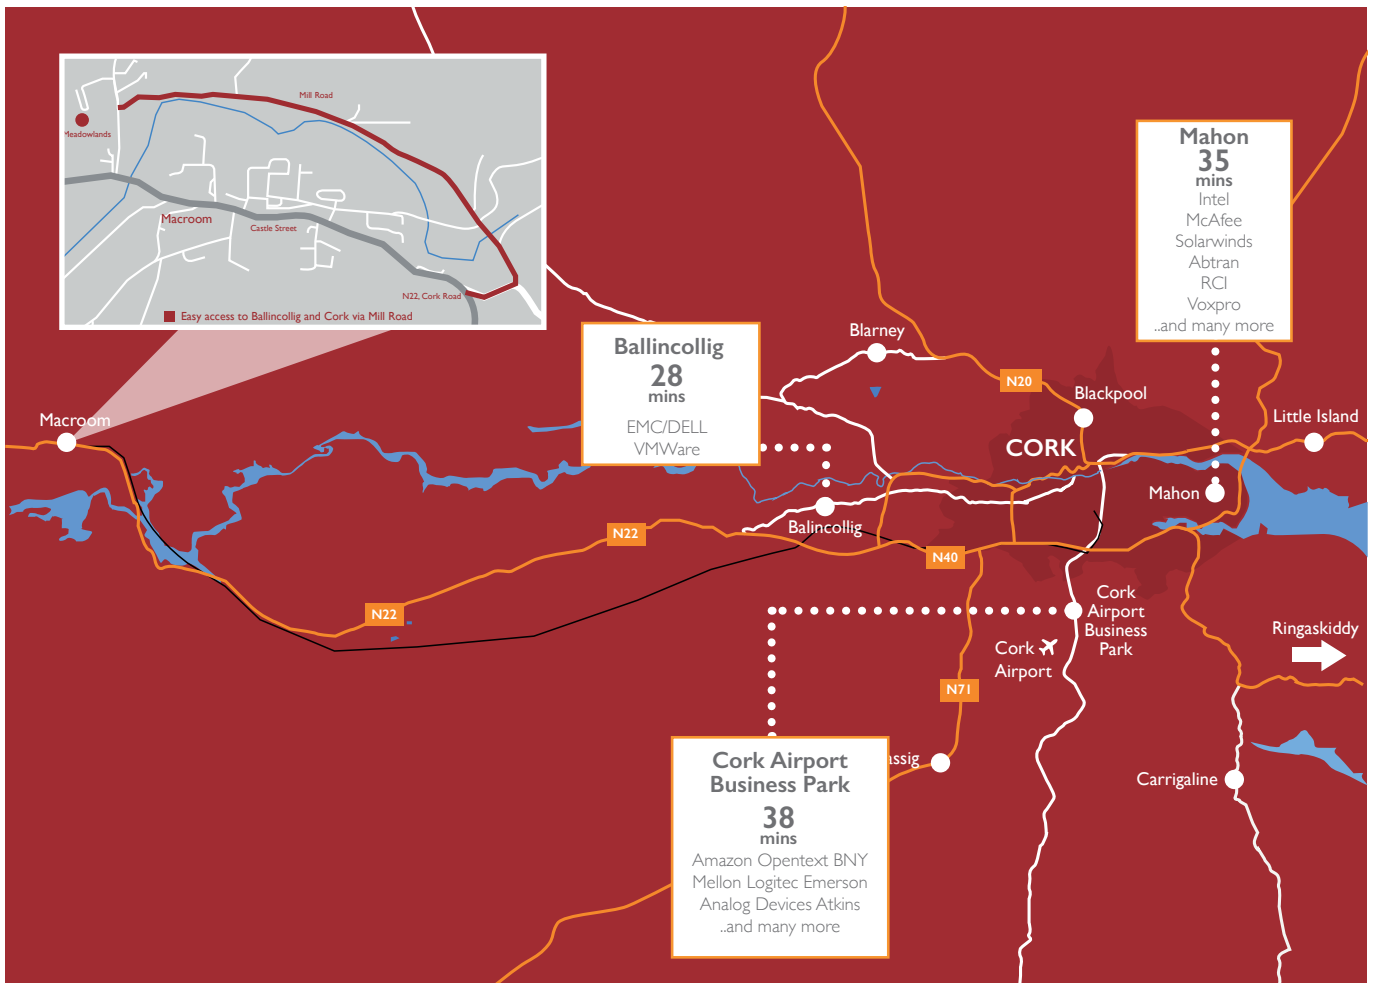

THE BUILDER

Hurley and White Builders Ltd have been in the house building business for 20 years and have an inviable reputation for high quality workmanship and the ability to deliver projects with a personal service on time.

EXCELLENT CONNECTION TO CORK CITY AND BEYOND

Located just 29km from Cork City, Macroom offers the perfect solution for those who enjoy the hustle and bustle of city life yet like to get away from it all during their leisure time. The N22 and R618 offers a quick route into the city for motorists, while a regular Bus Éireann service is a fast alternative to driving.

As the second-biggest city in Ireland, Cork's network of motorways and main roads, as well as its main bus and train stations, opens the whole country up for those looking to travel beyond the county. If you need to travel abroad, Cork's International Airport is located just a short drive away from Macroom, offering regular inexpensive flights to the UK, Europe and beyond. Travel times to Cork city and the Airport will reduce further once the Macroom bypass is completed.

LOCAL AMENITIES

MACROOM

There is something for everyone in this beautiful town. From excellent schools to great sporting facilities, Macroom is sure to please every member of the family. A wealth of dining options makes the most of the local foods, earning Macroom a great reputation for quality food and dining.

SCHOOLS

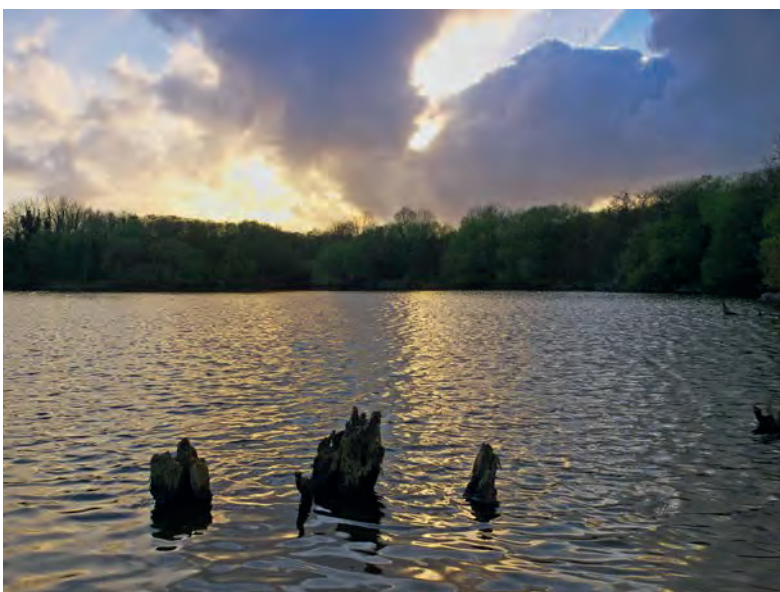

Parents are spoiled for choice when it comes to choosing schools. Excellent national schools include St. Joseph's, St Marys and Macroom Boys National School. There are three secondary schools, Bishop MacEgan College, De La Salle College and St Mary's Secondary school all on your doorstep. Excellent third level institutions such as UCC and CIT are easily commutable in nearby Cork City. Plus, the warm community spirit in Macroom means that your children can grow up in a caring, supportive environment all through their schooling.

SPORTS

Cork and Macroom have a proud sporting heritage. Make a contribution to Cork's proud GAA heritage and join Macroom GAA, a very successful football and hurling club which has its grounds in Bishop McEgan Park, Castle Grounds. Try your hand at Golf by joining Macroom Golf Club, the club has been a long-standing fixture in Irish golf. The parkland course winds through the banks of Sullane, while taking golfers on a journey of rolling terrain in the shadows of the Kerry Mountains. Interested in walking and hiking? take a hike in the Gearagh (Wooded River), this the remains of the only post glacial, alluvial forest in western Europe. The Inniscarra lake has magnificent facilities, and is home to the National Rowing Centre.

RECREATION

Macroom is a popular destination for tourists, so it's no wonder that there's plenty to do and see. The Gearagh is a haven of peace and tranquillity and provides ideal opportunities for off road walking. On the Gearagh Loop be prepared to encounter rare species of plants and birds. The River Lee has attracted Irish and visiting anglers for centuries and offers some of the best game and coarse fishing in Ireland. Opportunities abound for interesting and varied game angling, ranging from wild brown trout fishing in secluded mountain streams to salmon angling on the majestic River Lee. Coarse angling for Bream, Rudd and Bream/Rudd hybrids is centred around Inniscarra Lake. Carrigadrohid Lake which is nearby offers excellent pike fishing.

SHOPPING

The beautiful town of Macroom is full of interesting local food suppliers, boutiques craft shops and markets, yet this is balanced by more practical shopping options such as supermarkets and pharmacies. SuperValu, Lidl, Aldi, Dunnes Stores all have a presence in Macroom. Cork City is only a short drive away with access to the best of the big brand names in the city.

DINING & BARS

Macroom is renowned as one of Ireland's most picturesque 'market towns', with a long food related history. This is evident by the fine selection of restaurants, bars and casual dining options. Locally produced food is a priority for most establishments. There is also the annual Macroom Food Festival which takes place each year. This is a fun few days for families, as well as a key culinary weekend in the diaries of serious foodies. From live music to a school's cook-off, a massive outdoor food market and various talks, demos and taste trails, this not to be missed event showcases the finest artisan foods and producers from Macroom, Cork and even further afield.

HOSPITALITY

The sense of community is strong in Macroom, and residents like nothing more than a family celebration, big or small. Whether it's a birthday, christening, wedding or even just a family get together, you'll find a great venue nearby. With Cork International Airport only a short drive away, Macroom is a great location for a big family reunion.
