[h] NOTICES OF MOTION
FOGRAÍ RÚN

8. CLLR JACK WHITE

“That this Council request information on how often road lining contractors were in each Municipal District in 2024? Can a system be developed where elected members and Area Office staff know that the contractors will be present for a block of work in each MD at least once per quarter? This will allow more efficient planning of works and set predictable expectations for the public.”

[17-02-2025]

9. CLLR AUDREY BUCKLEY

“That Cork County Council write to Minister Darragh O Brien and ask that the retrofitting scheme, part of the SEAI grant for retrofitting be reconsidered. Allowing homeowners who are retrofitting their homes to apply for stand-alone SEAI grants for windows and doors.”

[03-03-2025]

10. CLLR ISOBEL TOWSE

“That Cork County Council would disregard child maintenance payments from rent calculations and social housing assessments.”

[05-03-2025]

11. CLLR PETER O'DONOGHUE

“That considering it is 5 years since the introduction of the Covid Lockdowns, Cork County Council would write to the Taoiseach and request that a fully transparent, Independent public inquiry into the previous government’s reaction to the Covid 19 virus be held within the coming 3 months and that this inquiry would also investigate the causes of the major increase in excess deaths in the last 3 years and if these deaths are linked to the covid restrictions.”
